

FROM THE HIGH COMMISSIONER

Dear Countrymen/women & Friends,

I present to you my final issue of FROM THE HIGH COMMISSIONER before I leave for Ghana next month. This, therefore, is a goodbye note from me to you!

As you are all aware, our country successfully held elections in December 2008. The National Democratic Congress (NDC) won the very keenly contested elections resulting in a change of government from the New Patriotic Party (NPP) to the National Democratic Congress (NDC) with Professor John Evans Atta Mills as President.

While saying goodbye, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all very profusely for the hand of co-operation, collaboration and support you so willingly and happily extended to me during my term in office as High Commissioner. I shall be eternally grateful to you all for this show of kindness, love and support. I would humbly implore you to extend to my successor the same level of goodwill, love and support. Let us continue to co-operate and collaborate to make Ghana strong and proud.

It is my hope that the Mission will continue to network with all Ghanaian-Canadian Associations and be involved in events and activities that you engage in to further strengthen the cordial ties that already exist between us to give meaning to our common partnership.

I wish you all the best in the years ahead!

MAY GOD RICHLY BLESS YOU ALL!
